On 15.10.15, an entry into the Companies House was made (Part 1 Companies Act 2006). Register of Companies and Businesses is a collection of information on business entities, maintained in the computer system in the form of a central database and updated on an ongoing basis. All our customers' trade names and companies are available on www.regist.co.uk. This letter is an offer. Entry in the register allows you to use the Register of Companies and Businesses in full, within the meaning of the Terms of Use (55 dated 02.08.2015) of the Register of Companies and Businesses. Wdjoia is also the holder of information in the form of a set of instructions, implemented interfaces and integrated data intended to achieve the objectives set. Publication of an entry in Register of Companies and Businesses requires payment of an optional registration fee in accordance with the current Register of Companies and Businesses rules (29 dated 21.01.2014) of GBP 190 by 22.10.15. Go to www.regist.co.uk and pay for the publication of your company. Lack of payment will result in lack of entry in the Register of Companies and Businesses.
